PSF Cook-Off Safety Covid-19 Action Plan

The Pasadena Strawberry Festival is extremely excited to be able to host our 49th Annual Pasadena Strawberry Festival. The Board of Directors of The Pasadena Strawberry Festival take pride in making this a family fun event, but safety is our first concern.

The PSF is taking many precautionary measures to insure the quality, cleanliness and safety guidelines throughout the duration of our Festival.

Event Location : 7902 Fairmont (Complete Fairgrounds)

Event Date: May 20th, 21st, 22nd, 2022

On March 2, 2021 Governor Abbott announced the signing of GA-34 "related to the opening of Texas in response to COVID-19 disaster". As a result, the City of Pasadena, will be amending protocols and procedures associated with the Governor's amended order.

AT THIS TIME all public guest who visit a City Building/Facility is strongly encourage to wear a facemask/face covering during the following situations:

- When interacting with public.
- When in common areas
- Within 6 feet of another person when there is no partition.

As a reminder, to effectively mitigate the spread of COVID-19, we all should continue to follow social distancing practices as maintaining a safe distance from others and good hygiene practices such as disinfecting commonly used areas and proper handwashing.

This pandemic continues to be a challenge as guidance continues to change, the PSF will continue to work closely with our local experts on this issue and will keep you inform of any new guidelines that we will need to follow.
